DRP Performance Products is a business ministry that designs, manufactures and sells original high performance automotive products. Located in Bassett, Virginia, DRP is hiring high-performance, dedicated, hardworking, team oriented, individuals looking for more than just good pay and benefits.

DRP is a small team that accomplishes big things. Applicants should enjoy large amounts of responsibility, be self-motivated and have an adventurous spirit. Must be dependable and willing to do whatever is needed. Positive attitude is a must.

Applicant should be focused, care about the quality of their work and their co-workers. The desire for continual improvement in skills and knowledge is important. God honoring language, honesty and respect for others is required. Work areas must be kept clean and organized. Safe work ethic is essential.

Applicant should embrace owning mistakes and avoid excuses. People inclined to drama or complaining need not apply. Needs to be comfortable with a fast, but accurate pace.

DRP is a technical environment. Applicant should be comfortable with technology, computers, troubleshooting and figuring things out on their own as needed. Working with what's available is important. Individuals seeking perfection or ideal circumstances should not apply.

Must be comfortable with the company's purpose of sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ with millions of people, prayer at meetings, companywide volunteer opportunities and community service projects.

Previous experience is a plus but not required. Training provided. Desire to learn the field and willingness to put in the effort needed is required. Culture fit is essential.

Should be open to communication. Weekly training, department meetings and quarterly performance reviews.

If hired, applicant can expect competitive pay, abundant and unique benefits along with the opportunity to work for an eternal purpose.
